

CENTRAL PARK

Front office

Does working within a boutique hotel appeal to you? And do you want to fulfill a position within the front of house department?

We are open to a conversation to strengthen the reception team with someone who has a passion for the hospitality industry. Are you looking for a small-scale company that is progressive with fourteen rooms & suites, has a worldwide reach through Relais & Chateaux and whose restaurant has been awarded a Michelin star since April 2023? Then we can be a match.

'Home away from Home' is the feeling we want to create with our guests. We do this by hitting the right chord. If you open yourself up and act proactively, you can master the work in a short time.

Are you someone who gives the guest a warm welcome with a smile? Do you have people skills, do you have a modest attitude, but is humor also part of your character? And do you enjoy working within a team, where you are open to helping a colleague where necessary? Do you strive for quality and service where you put the guest first and do you work meticulously when it comes to processing information, both by telephone and by email? Then Central Park fits you.

'As a Front Office employee, you are flexible when it comes to your schedule. One day you start at 07:00 and have breakfast before you start the front office tasks. The other day you start in the afternoon at 14.00 with the front office tasks. You also provide the turndown service in the early evening.'

'As a Reservations & Sales employee, you are at the heart of the business. Do you like to guide the commercial process from start to finish, for both the leisure and business guest. And do you have the knowledge and experience to support the front office team? Then this versatile position is for you.'

Whether it concerns a lunch/dinner reservation or the check-in of a hotel room or suite. If you want to provide the guest with an unforgettable experience during their visit to Central Park, we would like to talk to you.

We are happy to talk to you to see where your qualities, experience and knowledge lie. We discuss how your position can be filled as appropriately as possible within our vision. The conditions and benefits are of course also discussed.

I am Tamara Holwerda, mistress of the maison of Central Park and look forward to hearing from you. You can call or email 070-387 20 81 | tamara@centralparkvoorburg.com
